

Nutrition Counseling and Care Plan

Nutrition counseling and services begins during the certification process with an initial screening and assessment of the participant's nutritional status and determination of all applicable nutritional risk conditions. A Nutrition Education Care Plan must be developed for all participants during nutrition counseling and is designed to help meet participant's specific needs.

Rev. 10/07