

Priority System/Nutritional Risk

The Priority System/Nutritional Risk Code System is used by the South Dakota WIC Program. To be certified for the Program, applicants who meet the financial eligibility Guidelines must also be determined to be at a nutrition/medical risk. Provides guidance to the Health Professional as to when documentation of nutritional risk is needed and explains the definition and cut-off values for risk criteria and to provide justification for the risk criteria.

Rev. 08/07