Schedule A - Direct Contributions

This schedule is used for reporting all direct contributions. You must keep a record of all contributors, but for this report you may combine all contributions of $100 or less from individuals and the same from political parties and enter these sums as unitemized contributions on their respective lines below and on the next page. Any contribution of more than $100 or aggregate during a calendar year from an individual or political party and all contributions from PAC's must be entered as a separate item (itemized) giving the amount, name, address and place of employment (if applicable) of the contributor. Each type of contributor has their own section for itemization. This schedule may be duplicated if you need more space, or you may attach additional sheets of paper.

Best,

It is not lawful for me to have accepted "payment in kind" from
Leonard Studio, which is a corporation.
So here is the check in amt of 76³²;
the amt, given me.

Thanks anyway,

Re: Campaign Contribution - Resinded

To Whom It May Concern:

In February, we at Larry Jensen Motors, Inc, received a letter from Thomas Jurek asking us for a contribution to Tom's election campaign. Later that same day we issued the enclosed letter to Tom extending a credit amount of $250.00 for routine maintenance etc. during the campaign.

At the time, we had no idea that this is illegal. Today, June 19, 2002, we found out from Tom that corporations may not donate to an election campaign. Therefore, we are issuing this letter to anyone who may have a complaint against us or Tom in this matter.

During the approximate five month period, Tom only used this credit from us on one occasion. On April 29, 2002, we deducted from Tom's credit balance, Workorder #03124 for the amount of $22.32. This amount has since been added to Tom's personal account and a billing has been sent to him for the said amount. Also, the full $250.00 credit amount issued to Tom has been written off the books and no longer exists.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please feel free to call me at the above number.

Sincerely,

Brad Jensen
